Grades 11 and 12 students at Deer Lake School are gearing up for their first international mission trip to Sonora, Mexico. They will be leaving March 14 to help remodel two classrooms at a sister school. Besides the remodeling, students will lead in a Vacation Bible School for 150 students and teach English to grade 1 students. They'll be preaching and installing ceilings! In either case, God will be lifted up. Please pray for our/your missionaries!
